Index

AARONSOHN, CAPTAIN ALEX. The Powder Magazine of Europe. The Near East, 125–31.
ABBOTT, ERNEST HAMLIN. Our So-Called Peace, 10–14.
Addams, Jane, 211.
Alexander, James S., 202, 203.
Allies, jealousy of, 148; lack of harmony among, 127.
AMERICA: A PLEA FOR ACTION. S. K. Ratcliff, 178–80.
Allenby, Lord, entrance into Jerusalum of, 128.
AMERICA AS A FACTOR IN WORLD PEACE. Rear Admiral William V. Pratt, 181–7.
AMERICA'S RELATION TO THE EUROPEAN FINANCIAL SITUATION. Henry A. E. Chandler, 41–8.
America: attention of diverted, 179; attitude of in European situation, 80; debt to Europe (early and recent), 3, 170; European influence on, 102–4; exports paralyzed, 61, 62; failure of business men to function, 179; financial duty of, 47; foreign relations of, 181; influence of, 108; isolation policy of, 202; reasons against, 173; stimulation of armaments by, 172; part in international politics of, 14; part of in war, 61; petroleum policy of, 102; practical attitude of, 81; position of since war, 170, 171; protests of against Armenian persecutions, 154.
Anderson, Dr., 2.
Arabs, contributions to world of, 121, 122.
Armenians, no help for, 157; suffering of, 151.
Armistice Day, 126; since, 215, 216.
ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES BETWEEN EXPORTERS AND IMPORTERS AND ITS RELATION TO INTERNATIONAL GOOD WILL. Miller D. Steever, 90–8.
Arbitration, 97; need of international, 92.
Arms Conference, 118.
Austria, conditions in, 78; Hungary, 109.

BACHELLER, IRVING. Background for International Peace, A., 166–9.
BACKGROUND FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE, A. Irving Bacheller, 166–9.
Balance of power: what is, 12; destruction of, 12.
Barron, C. W., 71.
BARTON, JAMES L. Program for the Near East, A., 153–9.
Bavaria, 28.
BLIND ALLEY OF WORLD FINANCE, THE. Ernest Minor Patterson, 36–40.
Blue Bird, The. (Maeterlink), 214.
Bristol, Admiral, 80.
British Labor Party policy in Near East, reason for, 112, 113.
Brown, Dr. Philip Marshall, 96.
Bryce, Lord, 95.
BURNS, ALLEN T. Philanthropy and Foreign Relations, 74–7.
BURTON, THEODORE E. Effect of European Influence on America, 162–5.
Byzantia, 129.

Capital: distinction between liquid and fixed, 53; destruction of, 54; investment in small places of, 119.
Capitulations, question of with Turk, 151.
CARDASHIAN, VAHAN. Turkish Question and America, The, 141–7.
Cassel, Gustav, 39.
Catt, Mrs. Carrie Chapman, 211.
Cecil, Lord Robert, 178, 211.
Central Powers, problem of, 19, 20.
CERTAIN BARRIERS TO A REVISION OF THE TREATY OF VERSAILLES. J. A. M. de Sanchez, 23–6.
Chamber of Commerce of United States, 35; International: report of and resolutions of, 33–5.
CHANDLER, HENRY A. E. America's Relation to the European Financial Situation, 41–8.
Chester Concessions, 118, 123.
Child, Ambassador, 156.
Christian nations, unification and regeneration of, 130–31.
Civil War, example of, 60.
College fraternities, what work might be of, 168.
Commercial treaties, necessity for, 117.
Commission, need for fact-finding, 62.
Compromise, 63.
Conditions in Europe (present), 206.
Conference, necessity for, 117; on the Limitation of Armaments, 89.
"Confidence factor" in exchanges, 44.
Constantinople, entrance of inter-Allied fleet into, 132; unofficial representation of U. S. in, 80; occupation by Allies of, 153.
Constitution of Weimar, 27, 228.
Contrasts, in Germany, England, Belgium, 49.
Coöperation, necessity for world, 35.
Countries, unrest of, 109.
Court of International Justice, need for, 187.
Credit, extensive use of, 36.
Creditor vs. debtor class, 50–3.
CROSBY, OSCAR T. The European Tangle and Some Suggestions as to Its Unraveling, 15–22.
CULBERTSON, WILLIAM S. Foreign Investments and Peace, 114–9.
Curzon, Lord, 156.
Cuthell Board, work of, 93.

DANGERS OF INFLATION. Garet Garrett, 49–55.
Danzig, 174.
Debt, allied, 186; American cancellation of, 109, 110; no cancellation on America's part of, 70.
Deficits, increasing, 109.
Deflation, 39; in England, 50.

DE SANCHEZ, J. A. M. Certain Barriers to a Revision of the Treaty of Versailles, 23–6.
Devaluation, 39, 40.
Diplomatic work, 216.
DUGGAN, STEPHEN P. Turkish Gains Out of Western Discords, 148–52.

EARLE, EDWARD MEAD. Outlook for American Imperialism, The, 104–7.
Economic conference, necessity for, 61, 65; condition, German vs. American, 82, 83; basis, 82; interests, 85; government or private survey, 65.
Education, complex: ego, 220; herd, 221; balance between, 221; necessity for, 213.
EFFECT OF EUROPEAN INFLUENCE ON AMERICA. Theodore E. Burton, 162–5.
Emerson, Harrington, 10.
Equilibrium, approximate, 15; countries attaining, 16.
European conditions, 41; politics and America, 181: how to help, 185; situation, 10, 14.
EUROPEAN TANGLE AND SOME SUGGESTIONS AS TO ITS UNRAVELING, THE. Oscar T. Crosby, 15–22.
Evolution, science of, 221, 222.
Exchanges, condition of foreign, 42, 44.
Exploration, universal freedom of, 118.
Exports, government policies toward, 116.

Federal Reserve Board, report of, 46.
FENWICK, CHARLES G. Need of a Law Regulating Economic Competition Between Nations, The, 85–9.
FILENE, EDWARD A. Law or War? 33–5.
Finance: adjustments by delay, 38; British solution, 38; future, 40; present condition of European, 41; problem unsolvable, 37.
FISHER, IRVING. Reciprocal Influence Between America and Europe, 170–3.
Ford, Henry, 104.
Foreign exports, 44.
FOREIGN INVESTMENTS AND PEACE. William S. Culbertson, 114–9.
Force, governed by, 24; moral, strength of, 157; physical, failure of, 158.
Four Power Pacific Treaty, 14.
French: conflicting economic statements of, 71; financial problem of, 45; situation of, 79; Turkish concessions and, 149.
Frontiers, examples of, 174, 178.
FULLER, PAUL, JR. What Can the United States Do? 200–5.
Fundamental questions, 184.

GARRETT, GARET. Dangers of Inflation, 49–55.
GEDDES, RIGHT HONORABLE SIR AUCKLAND. Internationalism—A Hope for the Future, 215–23.
George, Lloyd, 37, 112.
GERMANY AS IT IS TODAY. Fr. Neuerbourg, 1–9.
Germany: actual conditions in, 27; after Armistice, 5; as consequence of treaty and war, 2; Austria and, 28; atonement made by, 13; "bankruptcy plot" of, 58; budget of, 68; capital, scarcity of in, 5, 6; course since treaty, 26; economic conditions in, 30; exaggerated stories, 31, 56; extent of treaty fulfilments, 4; false money stimulation, 56; intent of, 11; inflation in, 57; government surveys in economics, 106; issuance of data on finances by, 67; economic conditions, 30; misconstrued idea of evolution in, 222; offer of reparation payments, 1; poverty in, 3, 4; prejudice toward, 59; reparations, 70; suggested stabilization, 29; willingness of for solution of present difficulties, 31; taxes, 67; trade, reëstablishment of, 69.
Gold standard, European return to, 43.
Great Powers, rivalry of for colonial possessions, 87.
GREEK IRREDENTISM. Kyriakos P. Tsolainos, 160–1.
Greek: ancient civilization of, 160; irredentism, meaning of, 160; occupation of Smyrna, 154; persecution by Turks, 160; progress of, 161; spirit of, 161.
Guarantee, 187.

Hague Conferences, 87, 165, 189; second, 204.
Hanoum, Halideh, 137.
HART, ALBERT BUSHNELL. Reservations as to the Near Eastern Question, 120–4.
Harvard Economic Review, 41.
HOFFMAN, FREDERICK L. Views on Questions of Reparations and War Debt Settlements. The Need for a Fact-Finding Commission, 60–73.
HOLT, HAMILTON. League of Nations, The. What It Is Doing, 193–5.
HUDSON, MANLEY O. The Permanent Court of International Justice—An Indispensable First Step, 188–92.
Hughes, Secretary, 116.

Industrial problems, importance of right policy, 104.
Inflation, 38, 39; danger of, 55; in Germany, 30.
INFORMAL REMARKS ON INFLATION AND THE "BANKRUPTCY PLOT" IN GERMANY. J. Henry Scattergood, 56–9.
Intellect, weaknesses of, 167.
INTERNATIONALISM—A HOPE FOR THE FUTURE. Right Honorable Sir Auckland Geddes, 215–23.
INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC POLICY, AN. J. J. Mallon, 112–3.
INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION, THE. Royal Meeker, 206–10.
International affairs, present, 215; slow movement of, 216; Chamber of Commerce: kinds of service of, 94; work of, 93; suggestions of, 111;

Court, need for America in, 165; Labor Office: compelling feature of, 208, 209; difficulties of, 209, 210; fear of, 208; law, international, lack of real effectiveness of, 85; need for extending, 87; monetary commission, 63; situation, America's relation to, 212, 213; women's relation to, 212, 213; thought, 167; trade, problem of government promotion of, 105.
Investments, American and European foreign, 114, 115.
Italy, conditions in, 80.
Islam, rising of, 129–30.

JENKS, JEREMIAH W. Political Factor in the European Situation, The, 78–81.

Kemal, Mustafa, 160; bold move of, 137; control of Turks by, 155; creation of army by, 138; document signed by, 126; National Pact of, 154; rise of, 134.
KISS, EMIL. Reconstruction in Europe and the United States, 108–11.

Labor legislation, experiments in, 209.
Lausanne Conference, 149; America's position at, 156; Armenian question withdrawn from, 156; contention among allies at, 155; decision of regarding U. S. philanthropic activities, 76; important aspects of Near East considered in, 149–52; Turkish possessions at time of, 153.
Law of Merchants, administration of English and French, 90.
LAW OR WAR? Edward A. Filene, 33–5.
LEAGUE OF NATIONS, THE. WHAT IT IS DOING. Hamilton Holt, 193–5.
League of Nations: America: attitude of toward, 97; entrance into of, 185; entry not enough, 25; Covenant of, 212; Council, work of, 175, 176, 194; difficulty of American entrance into, 178; Fourteen Points, real achievement of, 24; function in avoiding wars, 173; how it acts, 193; necessity for, 207; for economic policy, 113: principle of coöperation, 212; solution of armaments question, 194; specific work of, 194; when Turkey enters, 158; withdrawal of U. S. from, 108; work of Council of, 191.
LERCHENFELD, COUNT HUGO. Present Political and Economic Crises in Germany, The, 27–32.
Lincoln, policy of, 11.

MALLON, J. J. International Economic Policy, An, 112–3.
Mark, decline of, 67, 83; new, 50.
McCrury, Captain Evan, 126.
McKenna, Reginald, 55.
MEEKER, ROYAL. International Labor Organization, The, 206–10.
Men, realization of business for peace, 33.
MENDING A FRONTIER. Sarah Wambaugh, 174–7.
MILLER, BARNETTE. New Turkey, The, 132–40.
Moslems, control of needed, 130; effect of Turkish success on, 152.
Mosul oil fields, 151, 152.

Nationalist Movement, 134, 135.
National: Pact, of Turks, 143; tendencies, reverting to, 182.
Nansen, Dr. Fritjof, 82.
Near East, 125; early history of, 120; example of Turk in, 112; political problem of, 78; problem of, 148.
NECESSITY FOR AN ECONOMIC BASIS OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE. Paul Rohrbach, 82–4.
NEED OF A LAW REGULATING ECONOMIC COMPETITION BETWEEN NATIONS, THE. Charles G. Fenwick, 85–9.
NEUERBOURG, FR. Germany as It Is Today, 1–9.
NEW TURKEY, THE. Barnette Miller, 132–40.
Noyes, Pierpont B., 64.

Oil issue, Chester Grant, 88.
OUR SO-CALLED PEACE. Ernest Hamlin Abbott, 10–14.
OUTLOOK FOR AMERICAN IMPERIALISM, THE. Edward Mead Earle, 104–7.

PATTERSON, ERNEST MINOR. Blind Alley of World Finance, The, 36–40.
Peace, conference, 212; seekers, a formula for, 15; without victory, 13.
PERMANENT COURT OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE, THE. AN INDISPENSABLE FIRST STEP. Manley O. Hudson, 188–92.
Permanent Court, of Arbitral Justice, 189; of International Justice, 86, 204; if U. S. goes in, 190; independence from League of, 191; President's address on, 118; proposal, 74, 188.
PETROLEUM FIELD, THE. R. L. Welch, 99–103.
Petroleum, 99–101.
PHILANTHROPY AND FOREIGN RELATIONS. Allen T. Burns, 74–7.
POLITICAL FACTOR IN THE EUROPEAN SITUATION, THE. Jeremiah W. Jenks, 78–81.
Population, growth of, vs. world's trade, 92.
POWDER MAGAZINE OF EUROPE, THE. THE NEAR EAST. Captain Alex Aaronsohn, 125–31.
Preferential export taxes, 115.
PRATT, REAR ADMIRAL WILLIAM V. America as a Factor in World Peace, 181–7.
PRESENT POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC CRISES IN GERMANY. Count Hugo Lerchenfeld, 27–32.
Problems: financial, 217–8; past and present, 217; proper teaching in schools, 219.
PROGRAM FOR THE NEAR EAST, A. James L. Barton, 153–9.
Products, control of natural, 218–9.

RATCLIFF, S. K. America: A Plea for Action, 178–80.
Raw materials, rivalry for, 88.
RECONSTRUCTION IN EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES. Emil Kiss, 108–11.
Reconstruction, conditions of, 110.
RECIPROCAL INFLUENCES BETWEEN AMERICA AND EUROPE. Irving Fisher, 170–3.
REDFIELD, WILLIAM C. Spirit of Our Foreign Relations, The, 196–9.
Rehabilitation, America's part in, 184.
Relations, between England and U. S., 215; Franco-German, 200; honest business, 96.
Religious fanaticism, 129.
Reparations, attainable maximum of, 108; French, 71; German offer of, 22, 21, 72; need for satisfactory settlement, 60; possible limit of German, 45.
Reputations, Powers careless of, 166.
RESERVATIONS AS TO THE NEAR EASTERN QUESTION. Albert Bushnell Hart, 120–4.
ROHRBACH, PAUL. Necessity for Economic Basis of International Peace, 82–4.
Root, Senator, 204.
Ruhr: evacuation; German viewpoint, 1; French, occupation of, 179: military security by occupation to, 21; misdirected policy of, 64; position of justifiable, 172.
Russia, conditions in, 82; problems in, 16–8.

SCATTERGOOD, J. HENRY. Informal Remarks on Inflation and the "Bankruptcy Plot" in Germany, 56–9.
Science, difference between religion and, 222, 223.
Scientific method, application of to present conditions, 198.
Secretary of State, note of regarding relief organizations, 74.
Settlement of obligations, 63.
Simonds, Frank, 71, 84.
Small powers, problems of, 19.
SPIRIT OF OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS, THE. William C. Redfield, 196–9.
Stabilization, present (Italy, Finland, Austria, Hungary), 42.
STEEVER, MILLER D. Arbitration of Disputes Between Exporters and Importers and Its Relation to International Good Will, 90–8.
Sykes, Sir Mark, 126.
Straits, problem of, 150.
Supreme Council, work of in Upper Silesia, 75.

Treaty: of Sèvres, 134, 148; of Versailles, 2, 21: American influence in, 46; conditions since, 164; effects on Germany of, 29; provision for call of German resources in, 66; revision of: barriers to, 26; continental viewpoint of, 23; signing of, 183, 184; what Germany lost in, 83.
TSOLAINOS, KYRIAKOS P. Greek Irredentism, 160–1.
TURKISH GAINS OUT OF WESTERN DISCORDS. Stephen P. Duggan, 148–52.
TURKISH QUESTION AND AMERICA, THE. Vahan Cardashian, 141–7.
Turkey, after Armistice, 132; at time of, 148; American missionaries in, 146; army of, 153; condition at end of war of, 132; contribution to world of, 120; defiant, 155; decision of in minorities, 150; demands of, 134, 35; during war, 143; early history of, 141–3; emphasis on Anatolian type, 135; intervention by Powers, 143; England and, 155; expulsion of non-Moslems by, 156; faith of in U. S., 81; failure as Asiatic power of, 121; financial position of, 150, 146; future of, 140; Greek occupation of Smyrna, 133; Greeks and, 149; oil concessions to U. S. in, 145; rivalry of Powers in, 132; severe policy of Allies toward, 133; treatment of Christians by, 122; tyranny of preferred to Christians, 128; women: recognition of by, 139; rise of, 140.
TUTTLE, MRS. FRANK DAY. Women and the International Situation, 211–4.

United States: confidence of Turk in, 75; dependence on outside world of, 197; drain on charitable resources of, 75; increase in foreign trade and effect on European conditions, 203; how aid can be given by, 203; economic position before and since war of, 105; exports increasing, 105; growth of foreign commerce of, 91; lack of foreign policy in, 188; need for coöperation in, 35; open door policy of, 116; opinions of early Fathers regarding alliances, 196; philanthropic appeals, 76; demand for preventive measures in, 77; unjustifiable fear of, 198; work already done and what can be done by, 197.
Upper Silesia, situation in, 175.

VIEWS ON QUESTIONS OF REPARATIONS AND WAR DEBT SETTLEMENTS. THE NEED FOR A FACT-FINDING COMMISSION. Frederick I. Hoffman, 60–73.

WAMBAUGH, SARAH. Mending a Frontier, 74–7.
War, Claims Board, work of, 92: continental viewpoint of, 23; existing condition of, 18; preparations for, 173; scientific progress of U. S. during, 196; the next, 21, 22.
WELCH, R. L. Petroleum Field, The, 99–103.
WHAT CAN THE UNITED STATES DO? Paul Fuller, Jr., 200–5.
Wilson, President, policy of, 107.
WOMEN AND THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION. Mrs. Frank Day Tuttle, 211–4.
Women, what they can do, 211, 213, 214.
World coöperation, necessity for, 207.
World's Peace Foundation, contribution of, 6.

Young, Owen D., 93, 94.